PAROLE GUIDELINES

INMATE NAME:

AIS#:

The Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles considers relevant offender information when making parole decisions, including static and dynamic risk factors, individual factors, and stakeholder input, while applying professional judgment in each case. In addition to the offender's social and criminal history, the Board reviews the parole guidelines. The parole guidelines ensure the consistent review of certain common decisional factors for all offenders. The Baseline Score is used as an aid in conjunction with the individual file review and information provided at the parole hearing as the Board exercises its discretion to determine the offender's parole readiness.

GUIDELINE INSTRUCTIONS

I. SEVERITY OF OFFENSE OF CONVICTION

If serving multiple sentences, score the most severe conviction only.
Sex offenses are scored "Very High"
Felonies involving personal injury are scored "Very High"
Victim cases are scored no lower than "High"

II. ACTUARIAL ASSESSMENTS

All offenders will have an ORAS completed. Sex offenders will also have a Static 99.
The assessment with the highest score will be used. If an ORAS or Static 99 cannot be obtained, an alternate actuarial assessment may be used.

III. INSTITUTIONAL BEHAVIOR

Disciplinaries reported by the Alabama Department of Corrections (ADOC) are considered.
Only the highest point score will be used. (Scores will not be combined.)

IV. PARTICIPATION IN RISK-REDUCING PROGRAMING/TREATMENTS

Only programs and treatments ordered by the Court or the Board, or recommended by the ADOC that are risk-reducing/cognitive behavioral as defined by ADOC are scored.

If the offender has completed all programming, score a 0.
If the offender has not completed all programming, score a 2.
If the offender refused participation or was forcibly removed from the program or treatment, score a 3.

V. EDUCATION AND EMPLOYMENT WHILE INCARCERATED

Education and employment are only considered if obtained during the present term of incarceration.

For education, the inmate must have fully completed the course and a certificate must be on file with the ADOC. Completion scores a minus 1.

For employment, the inmate must have an ADOC custody level of Min-Community or Min-Out and the employment must be verified as current. Employment scores a minus 1.

Revised 2026

VI. REENTRY PROGRESS

If the offender has submitted a reentry plan to include a home and work plan (and treatment plan if applicable) with supporting documentation or otherwise shown sufficient evidence of the plans, score a 0. For example, the offender provides a home address with contact name and phone number, and a letter from an employer saying that there is a job available.

If the offender has submitted an incomplete plan, score a 1. For example, the offender provides a home plan only. Or the plans lack sufficient detail to be able to verify without additional information from the offender.

If the offender has not submitted any plans or they are so lacking in detail they cannot be used, score a 2.

VII. STAKEHOLDER AND COMMUNITY INPUT

This section will be scored by the Board based on input previously submitted, and testimony received during the hearing.

If there is no opposition to parole but there is support given for the offender, score a 0. If there is both support and opposition given, or none at all, score a 1. If there is only opposition, score a 2.

[Note: If the offender committed their present offense(s) prior to the age of 18, the Board reviews whether the juvenile offender has demonstrated maturity and rehabilitation. For juvenile offenders, the Board evaluates the parole guideline factors in light of whether the offender was so young as to diminish their capacity to fully understand the seriousness and consequences of their offense or whether other relevant maturity or rehabilitative- related factors demonstrate a juvenile offender's parole readiness.]

ALABAMA BUREAU OF PARDONS AND PAROLES

Alabama law allows persons with an Alabama conviction to apply for a pardon or a remission of fines, subject to the procedures specified by law. These procedures give the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles the discretionary authority to grant or deny a pardon, or to grant or deny a remission of fines. The Board may also consider pardons for convictions in the courts of the United States or of other states if the petitioner is, at the time of application and consideration, an Alabama resident.

All applications for a pardon are considered requests for a full pardon. HOWEVER, the Board retains the discretion to grant a pardon without restoration of all rights lost as a result of the conviction. The Board cannot grant relief from the Alabama Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act except under the conditions described in Alabama Code § 15-20A-43(b).

PLEASE READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS BEFORE SUBMITTING YOUR APPLICATION.

While a pardon and a remission of fines can be applied for at the same time and have many of the same instructions, please read both carefully to ensure you meet the criteria.

PARDONS:

1) Complete the "PARDON AND/OR REMISSION OF FINES APPLICATION" form and a "WAIVER OF LIABILITY AND AUTHORITY FOR RELEASE OF INFORMATION" form. These forms must be submitted to the Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles at the following mailing or email address:

Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles
301 South Ripley St
Montgomery, AL 36104
Email: pardons.application@paroles.alabama.gov

2) No pardon investigation will be completed except at the request of the person with the conviction.

3) To be considered for a pardon, an applicant must have either completed his or her sentence or have successfully completed at least three (3) years on parole for the sentence for which the applicant seeks a pardon.

4) Notwithstanding the foregoing, a pardon based on innocence may be granted upon the unanimous vote of the Board following receipt and filing of clear proof of his or her innocence of the crime for which he or she was convicted and the written approval of the judge or prosecuting attorney who tried the case.

5) Upon receiving the application and waiver, the Bureau's Pardon Unit will investigate the applicant's case. The investigation includes current information on the applicant's home situation, job status, an updated criminal arrest record, written references, and other information as warranted. Applicants must fully cooperate with the investigation of his or her criminal history, personal and social history, and the circumstances of the crime.

6) When the investigation is complete, the case will be docketed for consideration by the Board and required notification will be sent to the victim, certain government officials, and the applicant.

7) The time needed to complete the investigation depends on numerous factors, and no estimate will be provided.

8) If the Board grants a pardon, the Board will also decide whether to restore any or all civil and political rights lost as a result of the conviction. As required by law, Board Members shall provide the reasons supporting their decision to grant a pardon in its file. The Board's order granting a pardon will be public record. All other portions of the file shall remain privileged.

9) If the Board declines to grant a pardon and/or to restore any or all civil and political rights, the applicant may not re-apply until at least two (2) years have passed from the date of the Board's action, unless expressly ordered by the Board. Any application submitted within two (2) years of the applicant's last application will be subject to rejection.

REMISSION OF FINES

All applications for a remission of fines are considered a request for a full remission of the imposed fines. HOWEVER, the Board retains the discretion to remit all or part of the imposed fines.

1) Complete the attached "PARDON AND/OR REMISSION OF FINES APPLICATION" form and a "WAIVER OF LIABILITY AND AUTHORITY FOR RELEASE OF INFORMATION" form and submit these forms to the Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles at the following mailing or email address:

Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles
301 S. Ripley St.
Montgomery, AL 36104
Email: pardons.application@paroles.alabama.gov

2) No remission of fines investigation will be started without a signed application from the person fined.

3) Upon receiving the application and waiver, the Bureau's Pardon Unit will investigate the applicant's case. The investigation includes current information on the applicant's home situation, job status, an updated criminal arrest record, written references, and other information as warranted. Applicants must fully cooperate with the investigation of his or her criminal history, personal and social history, and the circumstances of the crime.

ABPP-3

4) When the investigation is complete, the case will be docketed for consideration by the Board and required notification will be sent to the victim, certain government officials, and the applicant.

5) The time needed to complete the investigation depends on numerous factors, and no estimate will be provided.

6) The Board will only grant a remission of fines in cases to which the State of Alabama is a party.

7) If the Board grants a remission, the Board will provide the reasons supporting its decision to grant a remission in its order. The Board's order will be a public record. All other portions of the file are privileged.

8) If the Board declines to grant a remission of fines, the applicant may not submit a subsequent petition for remission for the same case.

Alabama law allows convicted persons to apply for a remission of forfeitures, subject to the procedures specified by law. These procedures give the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles the discretionary authority to grant or deny a remission of forfeiture application.

(The offender must have been convicted of the offense for which the forfeiture is being applied.)
Both the convicted person and the surety must agree to the remission of forfeiture and are considered co-applicants.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLYING FOR A REMISSION OF FORFEITURE

1) Complete the attached "REMISSION OF FORFEITURES APPLICATION" form and a "WAIVER OF LIABILITY AND AUTHORITY FOR RELEASE OF INFORMATION" form and submit the completed forms to the Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles at the following mailing or email address:

Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles
301 S. Ripley St.
Montgomery, AL 36104
Email: pardons.application@paroles.alabama.gov

2) No remission of forfeitures investigation will be started without a signed application from the applicant.

3) The investigation includes current information on the applicant's home situation, job status, an updated criminal arrest record, written references, and other information as warranted. Applicants must fully cooperate with the investigation of his or her criminal history, personal and social history, and the circumstances of his or her crime.

4) When the investigation is complete, the case will be docketed for consideration by the Board, and required notifications sent to the victim, certain government officials, and the applicant.

5) The time needed to complete the investigation depends on numerous factors, and no estimate will be provided.

6) The Board will only grant a remission of forfeitures in cases to which the State of Alabama is a party.

7) If the Board grants a remission, the Board will provide the reasons supporting its decision to grant a remission in its order. The Board's order will be made a public record. All other portions of the file are privileged.

8) If the Board declines to grant a remission of forfeitures, the applicant may not submit a subsequent petition for remission in the same case.

INSTRUCTIONS ON APPLYING FOR REVOCATION RECONSIDERATION

BEFORE COMPLETING THIS APPLICATION, READ AND REVIEW THE RULES IN ALABAMA ADMINISTRATIVE CODE R. 640-X-9-.07, WHICH CAN BE FOUND ON THE AGENCY'S WEBSITE (PAROLES.ALABAMA.GOV), AND THE INSTRUCTIONS BELOW.

- 1) All requests for reconsideration should be submitted on the Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles's Application for Reconsidering Revocation of Supervised Release form (ABPP-7). If a requester does not submit a completed form, the agency will send them a form to be completed and submitted within a reasonable time not to exceed 1-month.
- 2) Fill out the form completely. If you do not recall the exact date of the revocation order, you may provide an approximate date. Incomplete applications will be rejected.
State compelling reasons and, if applicable, provide documentary evidence justifying your reconsideration request. If additional space is needed, you may attach ten additional pages (not including any documentary evidence) to this application. The following are examples of reasons and evidence that do not warrant relief:
 - Arguments that witnesses lied at the parole court hearing.
 - Mitigation arguments regarding an applicant's good behavior while incarcerated or while previously under supervision.
 - Disagreement with a sanction imposed if within the board's discretion.
 - Disagreement with the hearing officer's factual findings where testimony or other evidence is contradictory.
- 3) If you wish for the board to consider any documentary evidence, you must attach a copy to, and submitted it with, the application. Describe, but do not attach, any non-documentary evidence (e.g., a video) in your possession that you can provide later if requested.
- 4) If seeking reconsideration based upon an acquittal, dismissal (with prejudice), or nolle prosequi (with prejudice and without conditions) of all criminal charges relied upon by the board in its revocation order, you must attach a copy of the order from the court that disposed of the charges. Charges dismissed as a result of a plea bargain in which you pled guilty to one or more reduced or different charges do not justify reconsideration.
- 5) Sign and date the application. Unsigned and/or undated applications will be rejected.
- 6) Mail the completed application and all attachments to:

Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles
Attn: Board Operations
301 South Ripley Street
Montgomery, AL 36104

To receive consideration, applications must be postmarked within six months of:

- the date of the board order revoking parole or mandatory supervision; or
- the date of the court order of acquittal, dismissal (with prejudice), or nolle prosequi (with prejudice and without conditions).

Applications rejected for being incomplete, unsigned, missing required information, or failing to comply with the Board's administrative rules, may be resubmitted as a corrected application if postmarked within the applicable 6-month time period above.
