Distance education courses may be offered by approved instructors of primary or secondary providers.

(1) A primary provider is defined as a course developer who has a proprietary interest in the course. If a primary provider offers distance education courses directly to Alabama licensees, the provider shall be a school licensed or approved by the Commission.

(2) A secondary provider is defined as a school which obtains a distance education course from a primary provider. The secondary provider shall have approved instructors who are responsible for enrolling students, providing course orientation, monitoring student progress, answering student questions, administering and grading exams, verifying and reporting course completion and verifying student identity. Any school providing any of these services, other than administering a final exam, shall be deemed to be a secondary provider. The secondary provider shall be a school licensed or approved by the Commission.

(3) Instructors of distance education courses shall be approved by the Commission. Instructors shall not receive approval until they receive the Distance Education Instructor Certification from IDECC (International Distance Education Certification Center), which is a subsidiary of ARELLO (Association of Real Estate License Law Officials) and submit verification of the certification to the Commission. The Distance Education Instructor Certification shall be renewed and kept current in order for the instructor to continue offering distance education courses.
