dealer for both the advisory client and the person on the other side of the transaction.

(2) An investment adviser effecting an agency cross transaction for an advisory client shall comply with the following conditions:

(a) Obtain from the advisory client a written consent prospectively authorizing the investment adviser to effect agency cross transactions for such client.

In the case of a purchase, if the investment adviser was not participating in a distribution, or, in the case of a sale, if the investment adviser was not participating in a tender offer, the written confirmation may state whether the investment adviser has been receiving or will receive any other remuneration and that the investment adviser will furnish to the client the source and amount of such remuneration upon the client's written request.

(d) At least annually, and with or as part of any written statement or summary of the account from the investment adviser, send each client a written disclosure statement identifying:

1. The total number of agency cross transactions during the period since the date of the last such statement or summary, and
2. The total amount of all commission or other remuneration the investment adviser received or will receive in connection with agency cross transactions during the period.

(e) Each written disclosure and confirmation required by this rule must include a conspicuous statement that the client may revoke the written consent required under subsection (2) (a) of this rule at any time by providing written notice of revocation to the investment adviser.

(f) No agency cross transaction may be effected in which the same investment adviser recommended the transaction to both any seller and any purchaser.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall be construed to relieve an investment adviser or investment adviser representative from acting in the best interests of the client, including fulfilling his duty with respect to the best price and execution for the particular transaction for the client nor shall it relieve any investment adviser or investment adviser representative of any other disclosure obligations imposed by the Act.

(b) Refers, directly or indirectly, to past specific recommendations made by the investment adviser which were, or would have been, profitable to any person. This clause does not, however, prohibit an advertisement which sets out or offers to furnish a list of all recommendations made by such investment adviser within the immediately preceding period of not less than one year. (c) Represents, directly or indirectly, that any graph, chart, formula or other device being offered can in and of itself be used to determine which securities to buy or sell, or when to buy or sell them; or which represents directly or indirectly, that any graph, chart, formula or other device being offered will assist any person in making his own decisions as to which securities to buy or sell, or when to buy or sell them, without prominently disclosing in such advertisement the limitations thereof and any difficulties with respect to its use;

(d) Contains any statement to the effect that any report, analysis, or other service will be furnished free of charge, unless such report, analysis or other service actually is or will be furnished entirely free and without any condition or obligation, directly or indirectly; or

(e) Contains any untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, or which is otherwise false or misleading.

(2) For the purposes of these requirements the term "advertisement" shall include any notice, circular, letter or other written communication addressed to more than one person, or any notice or other announcement in any publication or by radio or television which offers any of the following:

(a) Any analysis, report, or publication concerning securities, or which is to be used in making any determination as to when to buy or sell any security, or which security to buy or sell;

(b) Any graph, chart, formula or other device to be used in making any determination as to when to buy or sell any security, or which security to buy or sell; or

830-X-3-.28 The Use Of Senior-Specific Certifications And Professional Designations.

(1) The use of a senior-specific certification or professional designation by any person in connection with the offer, sale, or purchase of securities, or the provision of advice as to the value of or the advisability of investing in, purchasing, or selling securities, either directly or indirectly or through publications or writings, or by issuing or promulgating analyses or reports relating to securities, that indicates or implies that the user has special certification or training in advising or servicing senior citizens or retirees, in such a way as to mislead any person shall be a dishonest and unethical practice in the securities business within the meaning of Code of Ala. 1975, §8-6-17(b) (4). The prohibited use of such certifications or professional designation includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- (a) use of a certification or professional designation by a person who has not actually earned or is otherwise ineligible to use such certification or designation;

(b) use of a nonexistent or self-conferred certification or professional designation;

(c) use of a certification or professional designation that indicates or implies a level of occupational qualifications obtained through education, training, or experience that the person using the certification or professional designation does not have; and

(d) use of a certification or professional designation that was obtained from a designating or certifying organization that: is primarily engaged in the business of instruction in sales or marketing;

(i) does not have reasonable standards or procedures for assuring the competency of its designees or certificants;

(ii) does not have reasonable standards or procedures for monitoring and disciplining its designees or certificants for improper or unethical conduct; or

(iii) does not have reasonable continuing education requirements for its designees or certificants in order to maintain the designation or certificate.

(2)(a) There is a rebuttable presumption that a designating or certifying organization is qualified solely for purposes of paragraph 1(d) above when the organization has been accredited by:

(i) The American National Standards Institute; or

(ii) The National Commission for Certifying Agencies; or

(iii) an organization that is on the United States Department of Education's list entitled "Accrediting Agencies Recognized for Title IV Purposes" and the designation or credential issued therefrom does not primarily apply to sales or marketing; or

(iv) any other nationally-recognized accreditation organization designated by the director by rule or order.

(b) In any action brought under this rule, the burden of proof is on the party using a certification or professional designation to show that such use complies with this rule.

(3) In determining whether a combination of words, or an acronym standing for a combination of words, constitutes a certification or professional designation indicating or implying that a person has special certification or training in advising or servicing senior citizens or retirees, factors to be considered shall include:

(a) use of one or more words such as "senior," "retirement," "elder," or like words, combined with one or more words such as "certified," "registered," "chartered," "adviser," "specialist," "consultant," "planner," or like words, in the name of the certification or professional designation; and

(b) the manner in which those words are combined.

(4)(a) For purposes of this rule, a certification or professional designation does not include a job title within an organization that is licensed or registered by a state or federal financial services regulatory agency, when that job title:

(i) indicates seniority or standing within the organization; or

(ii) specifies an individual's area of specialization within the organization unless the facts and circumstances associated with the provision or use of a job title indicate that it improperly suggests or implies certification or training beyond that which the titleholder possesses, or otherwise misleads investors.

(b) For purposes of this section, financial services regulatory agency includes, but is not limited to, an agency that regulates broker-dealers, investment advisers, or investment companies as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

(5) Nothing in this rule shall limit the director's authority to enforce existing provisions of law.
