950-1-2-.01 Legislative Findings And Declaration Of Policy.

(1) It is hereby found and declared:

(a) That juveniles who are not under proper supervision and control or who have absconded, escaped or run away are likely to endanger their own health, morals and welfare and the health, morals and welfare of others;

(b) That the cooperation of this state with other states is necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of the people of this state.

(2) It shall therefore be the policy of this state, in adopting the Interstate Compact on Juveniles, to cooperate fully with other states:

(a) In returning juveniles to such other states whenever their return is sought; and

(b) In accepting the return of juveniles whenever a juvenile residing in this state is found or apprehended in another state and in taking all measures to initiate proceedings for the return of such juveniles. (Acts 1965, No. 675, p. 1214, §1.)

Author: Department of Youth Services

Statutory Authority: Code of Ala. 1975, §44-2-1.

History:

950-1-2-.02 Purpose.

Briefly, the major purposes of the Interstate Compact on Juveniles may be stated as follows:

- (a) To provide for the return to the home state of runaways who have not as yet been adjudged delinquent;
- (b) To provide for the return of absconders and escapees to the state from which they absconded or escaped;
- (c) To permit supervision of adjudicated juveniles received from another state and eligible for probation or parole. And to permit out of state supervision of adjudicated delinquent juveniles who should be sent to some other state and are eligible for probation or parole.

APPLICATION FOR COMPACT SERVICES

TO: _____

(Paroling authority or probation granting authority)

I, _____, hereby apply for supervision as parolee or probationer pursuant to the Interstate Compact on Juveniles. I understand that the very fact that supervision will be in another state makes it likely that there will be certain differences between the supervision I would receive in this state and supervision which I will receive in any state to which I am asking to go. However, I urge the authorities to whom this application is made, and all other judicial and administrative authorities, to recognize that supervision in another state, if granted as requested in this application, will be a benefit to me and will improve my opportunities to make a good adjustment. In order to get the advantages of supervision under the Interstate Compact on Juveniles, I do hereby accept such differences in the course and character of supervision as may be provided, and I do state that I consider the benefits of supervision under the Compact to be worth any adjustments in my situation which may be occasioned.

In view of the above, I do hereby apply for permission to be supervised on (parole) (probation) in _____ for the following reasons: _____ (state)

I (have read the above) (have had the above read and explained to me), and I understand its meaning and agree thereto.
