At least a portion of the review shall be conducted under "blind" conditions, where the reviewers scoring, averaging, or ranking the applications are not made aware of the identity of the applicant or any of the individuals or other entities associated therewith. Any independent consultants selected by the Commission will provide recommendations for the Commission to consider, but the Commission shall not be bound by the recommendation and the decision as to final approval or rejection of licensees shall remain the province of the Commission at all times. Review and evaluation of applications as provided in this Rule may occur at any time during the offering period, from the date of filing requests for application through the date all licenses in the offering have been issued.

Applicants and their representatives shall not initiate communications with the Commission or its representatives except as otherwise provided under these Rules.

(4) Public Records and Applicants' Confidential or Proprietary Information. In general, information contained in applications filed by Applicants are public records. Applicants may, through a process to be outlined on the AMCC website at or before the time for filing applications, redact portions of the Application to protect from public view in order to protect confidential or proprietary information. Failure to include a redacted version of the application at the time of filing will result in the entire application being made public. The Commission may, by order or rule, limit the scope of any redactions submitted by an Applicant.

(5) Investigation of Applicant and Owners; Criminal Background Checks. As part of the selection process, the Commission and its representatives shall investigate the Applicant and its owners, either directly or through a third party with expertise in performing such investigations and/or conducting background checks.

The Commission's decision to conduct a Pre- Licensure Inspection, or not, should not be interpreted as an indication that the Commission ultimately will or will not issue a license to the Applicant.
