100-X-2-.01 Registration Of Architects.

The Board shall have the power to determine the requirements for registration in the State of Alabama. They shall review or cause to be reviewed each applicant's file to ensure that all requirements are met. Applicants in question shall be subject to Board approval. The Board shall collect application fees as provided by regulation. There are ~~three~~four methods of obtaining registration in Alabama:

(1) By written examination administered by the Board or an authorized testing vendor;

(2) By NCARB certificate;

(3) Reinstatement of a lapsed Alabama registration; or

(4) If unable to qualify under (1) through (3) above, the applicant may demonstrate appropriate qualifications by a combination of education, experience, and examination endorsed by NCARB and approved by the Board.

100-X-2-.02 Registration By Examination.

An applicant for registration by examination shall submit an application to NCARB as provided in the Exam Eligibility Services Agreement with NCARB. The Board shall set qualifications and review, or cause to be reviewed, each candidate's qualifications. Proof of qualifications shall be required prior to allowing candidates to sit for the Architect Registration Examination® (ARE®). NCARB may approve an applicant to take the ARE® only after the applicant has enrolled in AXP and completed the Board's education requirements for architectural registration by examination in Alabama. Upon determination that the applicant is qualified in accordance with the Board's statutes and regulations, the applicant will be granted eligibility for the examination. Upon successful completion of all examination divisions, completion of the AXP, and submitted the required application materials to the Board, the applicant may be granted registration as an architect.

100-X-2-.05 Registration By NCARB Certificate.

An applicant for registration by NCARB Certificate shall submit an application for registration and the appropriate fee to the Board. The applicant will authorize NCARB to transmit his or her council record in support of the application. Upon receipt of the applicant's NCARB council record, the Board shall review or authorize the Executive Director to review the application and authorize approval of registration as an architect. Should the application or record reflect disciplinary history or unsatisfactory responses to questions on the application, the Board will conduct a further review of the application and render a decision regarding eligibility for registration.

(1) Military Spouse and Active Duty Applicants:

(a) The application fee shall be waived for a spouse of an active-duty reserve, or transitioning member of the United States Armed Forces, including the National Guard, or a surviving spouse of a service member who, at the time of his or her death, was serving on active duty, who is relocated to and stationed in the State of Alabama under official military orders. For the purposes of this section, a transitioning service member is a member of the United States Armed Forces, including the National Guard, on active-duty status or on separation leave who is within 24 months of retirement.

(b) The application fee shall be waived for an applicant who serves on active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States for a period of time exceeding ninety (90) consecutive days during the calendar year.

(c) Verification may be requested for items a and b above including, but not limited to: active-duty orders, letter from commander, or DD214.

100-X-2-.09 Emeritus Status Architects.

(1) An architect may apply for emeritus status if he or she meets the following criteria:

- (a) The applicant is 65 years of age or older; and

(b) The applicant has been registered in this state for ten (10) consecutive years or longer;

(c) The applicant is retired from the active practice of architecture. "Retired" means the architect no longer seals documents or practices architecture as defined by §34-2-30(3) and (4), Code of Ala. 1975.

(2) If all requirements are met, the architect shall be granted emeritus status. An individual granted emeritus status may use the title "Emeritus Architect" on any letter, title, sign, card or device. If an emeritus architect wishes to return to the active practice of architecture, he or she may do so by submitting the renewal fee, current renewal application form, and current year's continuing education hours required by regulation.

(3) Emeritus Architects are exempt from all renewal requirements including continuing education.

(4) It is recommended that Emeritus Architects keep their address information current with the Board in order to continue to be included in Board news.

100-X-2-.10 Renewal Of Registration.

(1) The Board shall have the power to set renewal fees and fees for late payment. The Board shall issue renewal notices to each registered architect from the previous year to the last known address. Failure to receive a renewal reminder from the Board shall not constitute an excuse for failure to renew licensure. Registration term is for the calendar year which begins January 1 and ends December 31. Renewals postmarked January 1 through March 31 will be considered late, and those renewals must include the late penalty established by regulation. All renewals must reflect completion of the current continuing education requirements established by the Board unless otherwise exempted. No provision is made for partial payment for a partial year. Renewal fees are due on or before December 31 of each year. If the registrant elects to renew his or her license electronically, the registrant may be charged a convenience fee or surcharge. If renewal is not completed on or before March 31, the architect's registration will lapse and must be reinstated, as required by regulation. Persons providing architectural services under a lapsed or expired license shall be subject to disciplinary action by the Board.

(2) For the purpose of attracting architects to the State of Alabama, the initial renewal fee for in-state registrants licensed by examination may be waived by the Board if funding allows.
